Louie's Golden Heart

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

I still remember that first glance, a golden boy so full of cheer,
Each day you gave a happy dance, banishing away all my fear.
With wagging tail and shining eyes, a favorite toy held in your mouth,
Your joyful barks, a sweet surprise, guiding me back to my home's south.

Chorus

Oh, Louie, my Louie Boy, my loyal friend so true,
Ten special years of love and joy, shared every day with you.
I miss your gentle, loving ways, that warm embrace I knew,
Through all my future nights and days, I'll always think of you.

Verse 2

At night you'd settle by my side, a soft breath in the quiet room,
My faithful shadow, my sweet guide, dispelling every trace of gloom.
Your loving presence, always near, a silent comfort deep and calm,
Chasing away each doubt and fear, a soothing, gentle, healing balm.

Chorus

Oh, Louie, my Louie Boy, my loyal friend so true,
Ten special years of love and joy, shared every day with you.
I miss your gentle, loving ways, that warm embrace I knew,
Through all my future nights and days, I'll always think of you.

Verse 3

Through sunlit hours and quiet space, your gentle spirit made its home,
A comforting and steady pace, never content to be alone.
A knowing look, a soft, warm sigh, your loving ways, so pure and true,
Beneath the vast and endless sky, my heart will always beat for you.

Bridge

I love you, my Louie Boy, I miss you, with all my heart and soul,

Thank you for all your loving ways, you made my spirit whole.
I felt it then, that endless grace, I feel it now, a love so deep,
No other could ever fill your space, your memory I will always keep.

Guitar Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Louie, my Louie Boy, my loyal friend so true,
Ten special years of love and joy, shared every day with you.
I miss your gentle, loving ways, that warm embrace I knew,

Outro - acoustic guitar fade

Now watching over me you stand, a happy ball held in your jaw,
A guardian angel, close at hand, living by nature's gentle law.
Run free, my Louie, soft and deep, your golden spirit ever bright,
While in my heart your memories sleep, bathed in an everlasting light.

Forever in our hearts
